

Telecommunications Act of 1996 gives the Federal Communication Commission sole jurisdiction of the field of regulation of radio frequency emissions and wireless communication facilities which meet the FCC standards shall not be conditioned or denied on the basis of radio frequency impacts.

- A. All telecommunication facilities shall meet or exceed current standards and regulations of the Federal Aviation Authority, the FCC, and any other agency of the federal government with the authority to regulate telecommunication facilities. If such standards and regulations are changed, then the owners of the towers and antennas governed by this section shall bring such towers, antennas and/or support structures into compliance with such revised standards and regulations within six (6) months of the effective dates of such standards and regulations unless a more or less stringent compliance schedule is mandated by the controlling federal agency. Failure to bring towers, antennas, and supporting structures into compliance with such revised standards and regulation shall constitute grounds for the removal of the tower, antenna, or support structure at the owner's expense.
