

The Attorneys are not the attorneys for any officials, officers, agents, employees, attorneys, or consultants of the Client regarding this matter, and shall not become so unless the Attorneys specifically agree in the future in writing to undertake such representation. The Attorneys will confer, as needed, with such persons to perform the services specified in this Agreement, but no attorney-client relationship shall be created with such persons merely because the Attorneys work with and/or request or receive information from any such persons during their representation of the Client.

The Client has disclosed all potential adverse parties to the Attorneys, and neither the Attorneys nor the Client perceive any conflict of interest in the Attorneys undertaking this engagement on behalf of the Client. If either the Client or the Attorneys, during the course of the representation, receive information indicating that a potential conflict of interest may develop or exist, the Client and the Attorneys agree to bring such information to the immediate attention of the other, and the Attorneys shall proceed to take such steps as may be appropriate in the circumstances.

1. ATTORNEYS' FEES. As compensation for legal services, the Client agrees to pay the Attorneys for legal services rendered and to be rendered on account of the Client's Claims, the Client shall pay the Attorneys' fees (hereinafter "Attorneys' Fees"). The Attorneys' Fees shall be one-third (1/3) of the Gross Amount Recovered if the Client's Claims result in a recovery. These Attorneys' Fees shall all be calculated before the deduction of costs and expenses, as set forth in Section 2 herein. "Gross amount recovered" herein means principal, interest, penalties, punitive damages, treble damages, attorney's fees, and all other amounts recovered, including the value of any structured settlement, future payments, or other relief achieved, whether by settlement, judgment or otherwise. "Constituent claims" herein means any one or more claims of the Client constituting less than the entirety of the Client's Claims, including a partial settlement or judgment with less than all defendants. The Client agrees to pay all costs and expenses, as set forth in Section 2 herein, which, in the event of a recovery, shall be deducted from the Client's share of that recovery. The Client acknowledges that multiple lawsuits have been filed relating to the same subject matter as Client's Claims. The Client acknowledges that these suits, including any suit for the Client's Claims, might be removed to a federal court as part of multi-district litigation. Further, the Client acknowledges that the court governing the multi-district litigation might appoint committees of attorneys to litigate common issues of law and fact to facilitate the resolution of those lawsuits for common benefit of all claimants, including the Client. As a result, the Client might be obliged to pay from any Gross Amount Recovered a share of its recovery to satisfy an assessment of common benefit fees, costs, and expenses in an amount as determined by the court. Neither the Attorneys nor the Client shall have the right, without the written consent of the other, to settle, compromise, release, discontinue, or otherwise dispose of the Client's Claims.

2. COSTS AND EXPENSES. In addition to paying Attorneys' Fees, in the event of a recovery, the Client agrees to reimburse all costs and expenses, as set forth herein only in the event of a sufficient recovery, shall be deducted from the Client's share of that recovery. Attorneys shall advance all litigation expenses on behalf of Client, and Client shall not be responsible for incurring or reimbursing costs of the litigation even if the amount of recovery is less than the costs incurred. Client shall only reimburse litigation costs or expenses in the event of a recovery by settlement or judgment. If no recovery is made, Attorneys shall bear all unreimbursed costs and
