

urine collections are not feasible. This combined lab + onsite approach is the most practical way for LCJAC to meet the required testing frequency for the local caseload while reducing burdens on families and court staff and maintaining consistent monitoring of participant substance use or abstinence.