

The majority of Lowndes County broadband deployment activities were funded by ARPA funds (blue). The FCC Rural Deployment Opportunity Fund provided the financial support for rural broadband development in unincorporated Lowndes County (green).

The web map below shows that the majority of Lowndes County with broadband access has great broadband speed.

