

No Site Development Plans have been submitted and therefore all measurements are approximated from a centralized location